

---

Organizational announcement

Head of Investor Relations

ABB is pleased to announce that Ann-Sofie Nordh has been appointed Head of Investor Relations, ABB Group. She will join ABB on September 1, 2020 and take over her new role effective December 1, 2020. In the role as Head of Investor Relations, Ann-Sofie will succeed Jessica Mitchell, who is retiring from operational activities and will pursue other opportunities outside of ABB.

Ann-Sofie joins ABB from Sandvik, where she has been responsible for Investor Relations since 2014. Prior to Sandvik, Ann-Sofie held multiple positions in equity research and equity advisory both in Stockholm and in London.

Ann-Sofie will report to Timo Ihamuotila, Group CFO, and will be based in ABB Headquarters in Zurich, Switzerland.

Please join us in welcoming Ann-Sofie to ABB later this year and wishing her every success in her new role.

ABB would like to thank Jessica for her significant contribution to ABB Investor Relations during her time with the company. Her strong advocacy of increased transparency has led to many improvements in ABB's financial communications, which we will build on further as we continue our transformation.