

Trainer Profile

Ariane Curdy

Ariane Curdy

Dipl. Oec. Troph and MAS in Organization Development and Management

---

Core competencies and specializations

Organizational development specialized in intercultural perspectives crucial for international business success; Intercultural communication and international management.

---

Professional experience

Founder and Executive Director, Ctrl Culture Relations

2001 – present

Based on an international work experience in more than 30 countries on four continents, providing intercultural training and consultancy services for various institutions, governments, non-governmental organizations, as well as private companies, corporations and multinationals throughout the world. She also teaches at various universities.

Economic Security Expert, ICRC International committee of the Red Cross

1988 – 2001

Food and Economical assessment of in war-stricken countries. Strateging planning, project management, and negotiation with authorities.

Field nutritionist, MSF Médecins Sans Frontières. Niger

1986 – 1988

Running a community based project for two years in a rural Niger.

---

Education

CCI / ICC – Portland, USA – Various intercultural certificates

2001 – 2002

THT – Amsterdam, Netherlands – Various intercultural certificates

2001 – 2002

ICPT Dynamics Ltd – Winterthur, Switzerland – Various intercultural certificates

2001 – 2002

Institute for Management Organization – Basel, Switzerland – MAS in Organization Development and Management

1999 – 2000

Master Thesis on corporate culture differences existing within Switzerland.

Justus Liebig University (JLU) – Giessen, Germany – Food and Economic Security

1980 – 1986

Specialization in Developing Countries.

---

Courses within ABB

CHW109 Living and Working in Switzerland

---

Course languages

English