56. Every share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and may be sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of either to the original holder thereof, or to any other person, upon such terms and in such manner as the Board think fit.

Shares of different classes shall not be included in the same instrument of transfer. Nothing contained in this Article shall apply to transfer of securities affected by the transferor and transferee both of whom are beneficial owners with the depository.

65. (a) An application for the registration of a transfer of the shares in the Company may be made either by the Transferor or by the Transferee.

(b) Where the application is made by the Transferor and relates to partly paid shares, the transfer shall not be registered, unless the Company gives notice of the application to the Transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 56 of the Act and the Companies (Share Capital and Debentures) Rules 2014, and the Transferee makes no objection to the transfer within two weeks from the receipt of the notice.

66. Every instrument of transfer duly executed and stamped shall be left at the office for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the directors may require to prove the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares.
The directors may waive the production of any certificate upon evidence satisfactory to them of its loss or destruction or under such other circumstances and evidence as the directors in their discretion think fit.

The registration of a transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval by the directors of the transferee, so far only as the shares transferred are concerned but not further or otherwise or so as to incapacitate the directors from declining to register any subsequent transfer applied for.

71. If the Company refuses to register the transfer of any share or transmission of any right therein, the Company shall within thirty days from the date on which the notice of refusal to be given to Transferor and instrument of transfer or intimation of transmission was lodged with the Company send the notice of refusal to the Transferee and the Transferor or to the person giving intimation of the transmission, as the case may be, and thereupon the provisions of Section 58 of the Act or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force shall apply.

74. The executor or Administrator of a deceased member or a holder of a succession certificate in respect of shares of a deceased member where he was the sole or only surviving holder shall be the only person entitled to be recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and the Company shall not be bound to recognize such executor or administrator unless such executor or administrator shall have first obtained probate or letters of administration or other legal representation as the case may be from a duly constituted court in India; Provided that in any case where the directors in their absolute discretion think fit, the directors may dispense with the production of probate or letters of administration or succession certificates upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the directors may deem fit, and under Article 75 register the name of any person who claims to be absolutely entitled to the shares standing in the name of a deceased member as a member.

75. Subject to the provision of the Act and these Articles, any person becoming entitled to any share in consequence of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of any member or by any lawful means other than by a transfer in accordance with these presents may, with the consent of the directors (which they shall not be under any obligation to give), upon producing such evidence as the directors think sufficient, either be registered himself as the holder of the share or elect to have some person nominated by him, and approved by the Board, registered as such holder: Provided, that if such person shall elect to have his nominee registered, he shall testify the election by executing to his nominee an instrument of transfer of the share in accordance with the provisions herein contained, until he does so, he shall not be freed from any liability in respect of the share.

76. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death, insolvency or lunacy of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages as he would be entitled to if he were the registered holder of the share, except that no person (other than the person entitled to the share of a lunatic) shall before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled to exercise in respect thereof any right conferred by membership in relation to the meetings of the Company. Provided that the Board may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect to either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within 90 (ninety) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

77. The directors shall have the same right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominee as it would have had as if such person or nominee were a transfeeree named in an ordinary transfer for registration. The Company shall not be bound to register a transmission unless the intimation of such transmission has been delivered to the Company under a proper transmission form duly executed by the person entitled by transmission and specifying the name, address and occupation, if any, of such person along with the relative share certificates or the letters of allotment, as the case may be. All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such intimation of transmission or any notice of transfer as if the circumstances entitling such person to the shares by transmission had not occurred and as if the person entitled by transmission or his nominee were the transfeeree named in an ordinary transfer presented for registration.

Provided that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the directors to accept any indemnity.

79. No fees shall be levied by the Company in respect of transfer or transmission of any share of the Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 32 and 36 above, the directors may generally or in any particular case waive the payment of the fee chargeable to a member in respect of any additional certificate or a new certificate as may be required to be issued therein.

80. Before registering any transfer tendered for registration the directors may if they so think fit give notice by letter posted in the ordinary course to the registered holder that such transfer deed has been lodged and that unless objection is taken the transfer will be registered and if such registered holder fails to lodge an objection in writing at the registered office of the Company within ten days from the posting of such notice to him he shall be deemed to have admitted the validity of the said transfer.

81. Neither the Company nor its directors shall incur any liability or responsibility whatever in consequence of their registering giving effect to, or acting upon any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof to the prejudice of person having or claiming any equitable or other right, title or interest to or in the same shares, although the same may by reason of any fraud or other cause not know to the Company or its directors, be legally inoperative or insufficient to pass the property in the shares proposed or professed to be transferred and although the transfer may as between the transferor and the transferee, be liable to be set aside and notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice (a) that the instrument of transfer was signed or executed and delivered by the transferor in blank as to the name of the transferee or the particulars of the shares transferred or otherwise in a defective manner or (b) of any equable or other right, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice or referred thereto in any book of the Company; and the Company or its directors shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to them of any equitable or other right, title or interest, or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do though it may have been entered or referred to in some books of the Company; the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto if the directors shall so think fit. In every such transfer, the person registered as transferee, his executors, administrators and assign alone shall be entitled to be recognized as the holder thereof and so far as the Company is concerned, the entire and complete title shall be deemed to have been validly transferred to such transferee.

82. The Provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to the transfer or transmission by operation of law of debentures of the Company.

(a) The Company shall not be bound to register more than four persons as the holders of any share.

(b) The joint holders of any share shall be liable severally as well as jointly for and in respect of all installments, calls and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.

(c) On the death of any of such joint holder the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the share but the directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit and nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other person.

(d) Any one of such joint holders may give effectual receipts of any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of such share.

(e) Only the person whose name stands first in the register of members as one of the joint holders of

Provided always that a joint holder present at any meeting personally shall be entitled to vote in preference to a joint holder present by an attorney or by proxy although the name of such joint holder present by an attorney or proxy stands first or higher (as the case may be) in the register in respect of such shares. (h) The provisions of these Articles relating to joint holders of shares shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures of the Company registered in joint names.

(i) In respect of shares or other securities held in dematerialized form, the provisions relating to joint holders contained in these Articles shall apply mutatis mutandis to the joint beneficial owner.

86. Any bonds, debentures, debenture-stock, or other securities issued or to be issued by the Company shall be under the control of the directors who may issue them upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such considerations as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company.
