

ABB and RhB: A relationship a century in the making

In 1913, ABB delivered its first electric train to the Rhaetian Railways
Today, the partnership continues with the versatile “Allegra”

100-year relationship with Rhaetian Railways

700 people
employed by ABB
in rail in Switzerland

Production sites for rail technology based in Switzerland:

Geneva
(transformers)

Turgi (traction converter) Baden (traction substations and turbochargers)
Wettingen (surge arrestors) Zuzwil (Medium Voltage installation for rail infrastructure)
Lenzburg (semiconductors)

Quartino (Uninterruptible Power Supply)

Power and productivity
for a better world™

