

Privacy Notice and Consent

ABB is fully committed to the protection of personal data and respects the individuals' right to control use of their personal data. This notice provides information on why and how ABB collects and uses your personal data and describes your related rights.

The controller of your personal data will be ABB Kft., 1139 Budapest, Váci Street 99., i.e. it will be responsible for the protection of your personal data processed.

During its event ABB will collect and process personal data and take photos.

We will use the personal data collected for 'marketing communication' purposes and will collect only personal data we need for this purpose.

It might occur that we render your personal data anonymous, so they will no longer be suitable for identification, however, we may use them also on an anonymous basis for various purposes, e.g. for analyzing data, for upgrading our services or for testing other information technology systems.

We will retain your personal data for 5 years and thereafter we will erase them securely. We may retain your personal data even after that period if it is necessary for compliance with statutory or regulatory requirements and/or for settlement of disputes.

You are entitled to request us to correct the errors in or to update your personal data. Your data protection rights include the following:

- you may receive the copy of your personal data,
- you may request erasure of your personal data for the use of which we have no legal ground,
- you may object to the processing of your personal data based on legitimate interests,
- you may restrict use of your personal data at www.abb.com/privacy. Under certain circumstances, we have to restrict your above rights in the public interest (e.g. crime prevention).

If you have any question in connection with the manner we use and process your personal data or you would like to lodge a complaint on data processing, please contact the Group's data protection officer at privacy@abb.com or send your complaint via www.abb.com/privacy.

If you are dissatisfied with our answer or think that we do not process your personal data in conformity with laws and regulations, please contact the Data Protection Authority competent in your residence.
