

Alejandro Rodríguez

General Counsel and Integrity Officer
ABB Mexico

Alejandro is the General Counsel and Integrity Officer of ABB Mexico, he has been head of legal department and integrity since end of 2003.

He has been responsible for the implementation of the Integrity program in Mexico and all legal activities including the merge of more than 6 companies owned by the Group.

Alejandro has more than 18 year of experience in litigation and corporate law, he is graduated from Law school (UABC) and have several post degrees studies that includes; Master in Corporate Law (Universidad Panamericana), Negotiation Effectiveness PON (Harvard University), Management Program for Lawyers (Yale University) and US Business Law Certification (University of Berkeley).