
A smarter space for your installation ideas

MISTRAL41

When it comes to flexibility, usability and design our MISTRAL41 consumer units can convince installers as well as end users in almost any kind of electrical distribution system in industrial, commercial or residential environments. A variety of innovative details make the MISTRAL41 series the perfect solution to realize all your installation ideas efficiently – now or in the future. Choose from a wall-mounted or a flush-mounted version to meet your individual needs.

Learn more at abb.com/lowvoltage

